

Equipment for Studio 1 Control Room

The regional RTV centre Koper – Capodistria boasts a brand new control room for their Studio 1 where news & information TV programming is produced. AVC worked on the project as the supplier of essential audio and video elements. The renewed control room now features state of the art SONY video production switcher system, a highly flexible compact digital audio mixer STUDER Vista and a GENELEC active surround speaker system.

