

Multimedia hall

The multimedia hall in the Energy Institute Hrvoje Požar is the first in a row of similar halls that we have equipped all over Croatia. A special challenge here was remodelling a space that originally had had a completely different function, into a hall; reconstruction of the area with massive columns in the middle of it. Another challenge was installing discussion technology on a glass desk, therefore we offered a solution for installation on a transparent desk.

