

Multimedia hall

The Management Board meeting room underwent redecoration in 2002 and was equipped with video presentation and videoconference system. The applied audio system consists of conference microphone system and simultaneous translation system with one booth and high quality AKG wireless microphone system. The basic functions of the audio/video system are manipulated from the control panel placed on the conference desk.

