

Multiplex Cinema sound system

New films often have incredible sound effects, which not only support the picture, but often also surpass it. Cinema sound systems have to resist to big level peaks into high and low end frequency regions, while at the same time create a perfect sound performance. That is why we equipped eight auditoriums of the Planet Tuš multiplex in Celje with JBL speakers and Crown amplifiers according to the THX standards.

Contact person: Jani Medič

