

Control room sound system

Industrial plants demand a special approach because of their specific demand and working conditions. At the Toplarna thermal power plant in Ljubljana we performed the commercial sound system installation with the Armstrong I-Ceiling sound elements. Our task was to install a system for alerts and a general sound system for the control room.

Contact person: Jani Medič

