

Parliament TV

The parliamentary television system is an integrated broadcast video system which provides a signal in broadcast quality, suitable for live usage for broadcasters and IPTV service providers. The system is incorporating broadcast quality video cameras and automation system, conference discussion and voting system, subtitling system and broadcast quality archiving system.

